- It is reported that new instructions to the pro-Slev organization in Trieste were issued last month from Ljubljana through Krizmancic, a member of the executive of the UAIS.
- According to these instructions, political activities should be better camouflaged and the Red Cross should be used more 20 and more to cover said activities. Women should be chosen to perform most of the political work in the Red Cross. In order to comply with these instructions the reorganization of the Red Cross is now under way.
- The Red Cross will apparently be sub-divided into branches, corresponding to the so-called "regional" sub-divisions:
 - 1 Region: Barcola, Roiano, Greta, via Commerciale, Casa Lavoratore Portuale
 - 2 Region: San Giovanni, Catinara
 - 3 Region: San Giacomo, rozzol, S.M. Maddalena, Circola Tommasi, Circolo Redivo, Circolo Dugolin
 - 4 Region: Sant'Anna, Servola, Coloncovec
 - 5 Region: Opicina, with 12 neighboring villages
 - 6 Region: Muggia with 22 neighboring villages.

To each sub-division of the region corresponds a "street committee".

Details of the political activity to be performed through the 25X1A9a Red Cross are being studied. So far, six women have been chosen to take charge of the following activities: "Vera" will be in charge of the political activities in the Sindacati Unici; "Janka" in the Lotta Antifascista; "Doli" in Agit-Prop; "Cigliolo" in the Pioneers and "Kattaruzza" in welfare. All these women will be under the control of "Crozdana". Comment: These women have been previously reported as members of the UDAIS (Unione Donne Antifasciste Italo-Slovene) and in charge of the same activities. This is explained by the fact that the UDAIS is now being absorbed by the Yugoslav Red Cross.)

5. 4,000 Red Cross insignia to be worn by leading UAIS members instead of the Red Star have been sent from Ljubljana. It is intended to serve as a sign of allegiance to the Communist idea.
